

TEHREER

Type: Script Writing

Type: Scriptwriting

Team: 1-3 members

Prompts for this category will be released on the day of the event. Delegates will be asked to write a script on a prompt of their liking from the list that will be released.

Two hours into the category, delegates will be given a twist to incorporate into their storylines. The twist will be revealed on the day of the event.

Rules and Procedure:

- Maximum marks will be allotted for originality and uniqueness.
- The number of scenes will be a minimum of 3 and a maximum of 5.
- Delegates must upload their scripts to Google Classroom on the event day.
- The scripts must be submitted as PDFs with a clear title and the name of the chosen topic from among the three topics provided. The font should be 'Times New Roman' with text size 13.
- Late submissions will lead to disqualification.
- The script's top must contain the team's name, team members, and their institution. This must be followed by a synopsis containing a summary of the play, the character list, and the setting. The script should contain a general structure with a coherent introduction, a climax, and an ending.
