

QUINTILLIAN'S PODIUM

Type: Literary Debates

Type: Literary Debates

Team: 2-3 members

Rules and Procedure:

Round 1

Get ready for a lightning trivia round to test your literary knowledge as a whole under the clock. This trivia will put you on spot cognitive thinking to test as well your familiarity with the book 'Jane Eyre' by Charlotte Bronte. Teams will be judged off of their quick responses and will earn points accordingly.

Round 2

In this round, teams will be paired up and a specific prompt in regards to the book 'Jane Eyre' will be assigned to each pair. These prompts will have been communicated to the delegates a day before.

They will then face each other off in a debate-like discussion that will require the delegates to give 4-5 minute speeches each, where each team will be allowed to speak twice.

Judging Criteria:

- The content of the speech should demonstrate the team's literary knowledge and understanding of the book and the prompt.
- The speeches should include critical analysis and perceptive evaluations that show unique personal interactions with the piece of literature.
- The delivery should have tonal variation and stylistic traits and mannerisms that make the speeches more impactful and convincing
- There should be integrated refutations, rebuttals and strategic comparatives that show an ability to evolve, respond and competitively display the strengths of your arguments over the other teams'.
